A CREED.

I believe in boys and givls, the men and women of a great tomorrow, that whatsoever the boy soweth, the man shall reap. I believe the curse of ignorance, in the efficacy of schools, in the dignity of teaching, and the joy of serving another. I be-* lieve in wisdom as revealed in human lives as well as in the pages of a printed book; in lessons taught not so much by precept as by example; in ability to work with the hands as well as to think with the. * head; in everything that makes life large and lively, I. believe in beauty in the schoolroom, in the daily life and out of doors. I believe * in laughter, in all ideals and * distant hopes that lure sus on. I believe that every hour of every day we receive a just reward for all we do. I believe in the present and its opportunities, in the future and its promises, and in the divine joy of living.—Edwin Osgood Grover.

TIME TO BE CAREFUL.

President Coolidge has lived in the country, and has also spent a good part of his time in small towns. So he knows what he is talking about when he declares that fires in rural sections and in our smaller towns are the greatest menace that a people can face. He referred to it but a few days ago when he called attention to the fact that we are now entering the dangerous period when leaves, weeds and grasses are becoming dry and highly inflammable.

All of us know how easy it is for a camp fire or even the fragments of a cigar or cigarette carelessly dropped in the woods to start a fire that will destroy many hundreds of dollars worth of timber, and quite frequently dwelling houses and barns. Citizens of Bay St. Louis realize that the season is here when it is necessary to inspect all chimneys and flues before starting a fire in a stove, grate or furnace, and they should not need a second warning along this line Water may or may not be plentiful fires are not always easily quenched, even when the water supply is unlimited.

We do not particularly need a a "fire prevention day" to remand us of our duty. We can make today a fire prevention day by cleaning up dry rubbish in yards and alleyways; by seeing that summer rains have not endangered chimneys or rusted holes in flues and stove pipes and by cleaning them out before starting a fire in the house. The old proyer, about an ounce of prevention being worth a pound of cure must have been spoken first of fire prevention. At Aeast it fits it mighty well-and right now would be a good time to put it into practice.

THIS YEAR'S CROPS.

Experts say that for the fifth time n history this country will harvest a 3,000,000 bushel corn crop. Considering the jump in price over a year ago it means prosperity in many States, and will mark a break in agricultural depression. Cotton and tobacco are two money crops which show a fair increase. These things will not help the western and northwestern wheat farmers, but it will bolster the bank balance of the gossip class by adding a little more southern and eastern growers, and country won't be hit at the same time. It Takes Lots of Money To Run A Railroad

Few people—even good business men-know the tre-mendous amount of money it takes to run a railroad. The items of equipment, extensions, upkeep and operation make a total far greater than the casual estimate that would be made by these uninformed as to railroading; and the item of taxes is one which is generally overlooked entirely. The railroads of this country have not been getting enough money from traffic earnings to meet expenses and provide for the extensions and improvements in service which the public demands and has a right to expect. The railroads must have more money, in order to meet the traffic requirements; and, to get this money they must have the confidence and co-operation of the public.
